Elba Mayor Tangles With Police

Mayor Robert Folsom suspended Policeman Pete Daugherty without pay Tuesday afternoon and reinstated him minutes later. The reason stated on typed letter of suspension was "disrespect to the Mayor of Elba at a meeting relative to a complaint by Mr. ---- (name omitted by CLIPPER) on July 26, 1977, at 1:20." Folsom tore the letter up before placing it in Daugherty's file and told him to go back to work.

The story of what happened has been pieced together as follows, quoting those involved the was not out of line and was doing wath he did continued to be continued to be a policeman for the City of Elba, and Daugherty acknowledged he was.

Tuesday the father of one of the youths visited Mayor Robert folsom and complained of an Elba policeman being out of his territory. We Want Your Comments

This TV schedule is a sample being considered as a regular feature of THE ELBA CLIPPER. To determine the future of the usage, we need comments from our readers. The cost of publishing this each week is high and if there is not sufficient demand, the idea will discarded.

It sometimes seems that all we do each week is to report what The People Mayor Folsom has been up to, and how the members of the City Council are trying to stamp out the "brush fires" he has set as he blunders through his job as mayor of Elba. This week is no exception . . . In a fuss with a police officer, he suspended the man for an hour or so and reportedly has instructed him to stop GIVING his free time helping at the Girl Scout Camp. As usual he will probably deny saying this even though there were several who heard it . . . it won't be shriveled. Pastures are being burned to a crisp. The pend the officer again if the scout camp carefaker files that pend the officer again if the scout camp caretaker files charges against some teenagers for trespassing (all this happened out of the Elba police jurisdiction!) Folsom does occasionally make a right decision and we would love to concentrate on sharply into soybean and these, but they are so overshadowed by his actions that are peanut yields. Cattlemen glaringly and/or blindly wrong that we lose sight of the good are being forced into buy-Also, we only touch the tip of the iceburg each week or more city employee unnecessarily, and at the same time there would be pastures to in the newspaper . . . Folsom is continuously badgering one telling others it is OK to disregard decisions made by the city graze and still enough hav council in official meetings. So far the only thing that slows to cut and sell. Folsom down is the fact that the public pressure gets rough when people find out about his activities . . . and he only backs off then to get a running start for another try!

We will hear more and more about state politics as the elect- chickens that do live ion year gets nearer. What amazes me is that for a week or so, through the heat suffer, all the talk is governor, then a week or so of Lt. Governor and so on down the line. Then all of a sudden we are back to the governor again and still no election has been decided.

For some months our mail box has been flooded with mimeographed releases from the Church of Scientology of Florida. The first few we opened and read, but the pattern was the same We were unable to generate any sympathy for their tales of being picked on by the government. However, this week I read some more of the releases. This time it was all about the FBI taking the papers they had gathered from government files, and also parts of a detailed report of an agent that attended some of their meetings. However, none of the reports mailed to us carried anything but the fact that an agent they omitted the parts about had attended the meetings . . what he observed at the meetings. Now I have been to church a few times myself and to various churches, but never would go to any church that had anything to hide from the governnent or anyone else. I will continue to discard crap from the Church of Scientology without reading it.

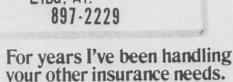

A couple of years ago I got the bright idea that Elba folks should go after one of these state prisons being built around the state. However, after seeing the reaction in those areas and the reaction of Elba folks over the work-release center, am glad that ye ole editor didn't come out in favor of us getting one of those prisons. I would have the whole country down on my neck apparently. However, the thought is still in

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT: 'Six Million Dollar Man' Lee Majors likes to forget about his first marriage. But where does that leave Lee Majors, Jr., now 14? It leaves him in Lexington, Ky. with mama, who has remarried and is now Mrs. Kathy White. She was Kathy Robinson, his college sweetheart in the days when big Lee was known as Harvey Yeary. The wedding took place in the early 1960's, and the divorce in 1965 when Lee hit Hollywood, which turned his whole life around . . . Meanwhile here's another insider's 'real' reason why Farrah Fawcett-Majors left 'Charlie's Angels': she couldn't stand any nore of those two-hour daily sessions required for the perfection of her hairdo. She claims all she wants to do is pend the next six months playing tennis and looking loppy. So how come Farrah and Lee jumped to accept ne Shah of Iran's offer of a free trip to Teheran and a stay t his palace? . . Echo of Freddie Prinze: the Comstock otel in Beverly Hills put in a claim to his estate for several thousand dollars in unpaid rent and telephon bills, plus damage to the apartment where he shot himself. Blood all over the walls . . . Cher is distressed now about looking too scrawny and has joined a Beverly Hills health club to try to gain some weight... Sally Struthers is on the loose (boy, is she on the loose) after busting up with longtime beau Dr. William Rader. The fella she's seen with these days is Alan Carr, one of the givest and most sociable guys around. Alan is producer.

TV BACKSTAGE: Few people know that blue-eyed, honey blonde Suzanne Somers, who stars as Chrissy Snow on 'Three's Company,' was a best-selling poetess before she became known on television. "I owe everything to Jacqueline Susann." They met in San Francisco. "I told her I had written poetry all my life," Suzanne told me, "and she asked to read some of my work. I was flabbergasted that a woman of her stature would take the time to read something by a complete unknown. I expected a nice note," said Suzanne, "but she told me she thought I had a lot of writing talent and she encouraged me to look for a publisher. She even opened a few doors for me." With Ms. Susann's encouragement and help, Suzanne Somers had her first book published, 'Touch Me.' It became one of the olggest-selling books of poetry ever written. A sequel, Touch Me Again, also topped the best-seller lists. This was followed by a self-help book, 'Some People Live More Than Others.' . . . Kristy McNichol, the 14-year-old actress of ABC-TV's 'Family' series, is writing an 'authorized autobiography.' In the first draft of six handwritten pages she reveals that her two movie heroes are Warren Beatty and Marlon Brando, and that she wants to get married, have a family, and adds "I hate washing ishes, even though we have a dishwasher." I wonder

The City Softball League season has ended, but the Independent League season is not even half over. If you like to watch softball, the action will continue until September!

The Dorsey Trailer softball team pulled off a mild surprise last weekend by qualifying for the State Class A Soft-ball Tournament to be held next month in Cullman. There are over 200 softball teams in the local district, but due to the strength of several teams, only eight teams entered the District Tourney. Many local teams siad they just couldn't 6 compete in the District because they didn't have a chance. Well, two teams from Elba entered the tourney, and Dorsey placed third to earn a spot in the state tournament. The Dorsey team supposedly didn't have a chance against the Wicksburg Merchants, but they beat the team 9-7. Next came the Hartford Merchants, a team that was supposed to be in the same class as Superior Roofing and Seale's. Well, Dorsey whipped them II-9 and wrapped up a trip to Cullman.

The People's Bank lost two straight, but could have won both games with a couple of breaks. The Bankers were tied with Smokey's 3-3 after three-innings, but had a rash of errors and lost 10-4. In their second loss, the Bank played errors and lost 10-4. In their second loss, the Bank played and lost 2-1.
